ANTI-RAGGING COMMITTEE/ SQUAD ACTION TAKEN REPORT

Awareness Campaign regarding promotion of ragging-free environment among the students of Undergraduate Semester –I of Krishnagar Government College.

Date & Time: 02.12.2025 from 12:15 pm onwards

Venue: Department of Chemistry, Post Graduate Department of Geography, and Department of Physics

Objective: Anti-ragging committee members together with Anti-Ragging Squad of the College are engaged in creating a safe, respectful, and ragging-free environment in and beyond the campus by preventing, addressing, and taking action against all forms of ragging among the students of Undergraduate Semester –I of Krishnagar Government College.

The three members (Dr. Dipanwita Majumdar, Dr. Senjuti Gupta and Dr. Debika Ghosh) of Anti Ragging Committee of Krishnagar Government College, have visited three departments viz., Department of Chemistry, Post Graduate Department of Geography and Department of Physics, for enhancing the awareness regarding ragging among the students of Undergraduate Semester-I. Three members have dictated the meaning of ragging, the anti ragging policy of Krishnagar Government College and its consequences on the academic career of a student. They have informed the students how to identify the means of ragging and what will be the steps the students can take if any of them will feel ragged by anyone. At first, students should inform the issue at the department and if the situation will persist then he / she can inform the Anti-Ragging Committee and Anti-Ragging Squad of Krishnagar Government College. And after this if the situation will not be solved then he/she can send a mail to the mail id already given in college's website or can make a phone call on the given contact number in College's website. Students are asked to make friends and extend cooperative attitudes towards their classmates to avoid any undesirable situation. The students are asked to promote good behaviour and ambience all together which is desirable in an academic institution.

Outcome: To foster a campus culture of discipline, mutual respect, and empathy, where ragging is not tolerated and acts of ragging do not go unnoticed.

ANTI-RAGGING COMMITTEE/SQUAD ACTION TAKEN REPORT

Awareness Campaign regarding Promotion of Ragging-Free Environment among the students of Undergraduate Semester –I of Krishnagar Government College.

Date & Time: 05.12.2025 from 12:15 pm onwards

Venue: Department of Chemistry, Post Graduate Department of Zoology, and Department of Physiology, Canteen

Objective: To create a ragging-free and peaceful environment on campus, and to raise awareness among students about the college's grievance redressal system and the higher education system concerning the prevention of ragging.

Target Audience: Undergraduate students in their first semester across these departments at Krishnagar Government College.

Description of the event: Members of the Anti-Ragging Committees and the Anti-Ragging squad of the college (Dr. Dipanwita Majumder, Dr. Tania Chatterjee, Dr. Mrinal Kanti Basak, Dr. Moumita Dey) visited three departments (Botany, Zoology, Physiology) and the College Canteen. They conducted an interactive session with the UG Sem I students of all these respective Departments. The faculty provides information on the rules and regulations of the Anti-Ragging Prevention mechanism. They discussed the different forms and patterns of behavior that fall under the category of ragging with examples.

Students are provided with the information on the helpline number and the process to register their complaints regarding ragging-related activities.

The process of registering complaints follows this thread

Contact and inform the faculty of the department about the event- Inform the Head of the department- Inform the members of the Anti-Ragging Squad and Anti-Ragging Committee via the Head of the Department- Inform the Head of the Institution via the concerned Committee. If the case is not resolved, they can write to the email ID provided on the College website or contact the concerned person using the phone number provided on the College website.

Students are encouraged to foster a friendly campus environment and practice good behavior with their peers as well as teaching and non-teaching staff.

Outcome: Students get the detailed information about the ragging-related rules, regulations, and penalties, and actively participate in the interactive session.
